

Potential New Client – Instructions

Thank you for reaching out to our law firm to discuss your potential case. We look forward to meeting with you. Before your scheduled appointment, please print and fill out the New Client Information Form that is relevant to the issues in your potential case (Motor Vehicle Accident, Slip/Trip and Fall, Medical Malpractice, Nursing Home Negligence, Employment Law, etc.)

You may print this form and bring it with you with the other documents we request, or you can feel free to email it to info@lawjw.com. Do not worry if you are not in possession of all of the documents, we have asked you to bring; please bring as much information as you have to your meeting.

Feel free to further explore our website, which contains information about our firm, attorneys and staff, our practice areas, community involvement and charitable giving. For over 45 years, Javerbaum Wurgaft has prided itself on its commitment to achieving outstanding results for our clients as well as its commitment to making our communities safer for everyone.

We will call to confirm your appointment, but should you have any questions prior to our meeting, please do not hesitate to contact our offices:
